In God We Trust Eager to Get to Work in 115th Congress; Religious Freedom at Stake!

The 115th Congress has convened and with it comes great opportunity. Americans have spoken, and spoken loudly, that our country has drifted too far from its core principles and that change must be made now.

“The November elections spoke volumes on how Americans are ready for real change,” states National Chairman Bishop Council Nedd II. “It’s time to bring back the core principles that have guided this country to be the most powerful and respected nation

In God We Trust Backs Reintroduction of H.R. 148

Congressman Walter Jones (left) (R-NC-3), lead sponsor of The Pray In Jesus’ Name Act, thanks In God We Trust National Chairman Bishop Council Nedd II for his tireless work to gain cosponsors and eventual passage of H.R. 148 when it is reintroduced in the 115th Congress.

In God We Trust’s legislative team will support Congressman Walter Jones’ staff in reintroducing H.R. 148, The Pray in Jesus’ Name Act, during the 115th Congress.

“Congressman Jones is a good friend,” states Bishop Council Nedd. “It will be a pleasure to continue working side by side with him and his staff to ensure that our brave men and women of the military will have the right to pray as they see fit before risking their lives on the battlefield to protect America.”

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Dear Friend,

I want to use this month's message to thank all In God We Trust members and supporters for their continued support of our mission. If it weren't for decent, God-fearing Americans like you, I feel our goals simply wouldn't be attainable.

Your tireless dedication to our program is truly humbling. I pray daily that you and I can continue to work together during the course of the 115th Congress to ensure that the atheists and humanists that are working day and night to erase all semblance of religion in America are defeated.

Your continued participation in our national surveys and petition drives will be critical to our success over the course of the 115th Congress. It is important that we unite as one voice, under God, to fight tooth and nail against the wealthy atheist lobbying machine in Washington. Armed with your signed petitions and survey results, along with God's grace, I will continue to fight the atheists to make sure that the role of religion in America is preserved.

Prayerfully yours,

The Right Rev. Council Nedd II
National Chairman

in the world, and with that comes the word of God. I intend to keep my faithful word to every one of our supporters to fight to protect religious freedom in America.”

As the 115th Congress convenes, it is imperative that we continue to have your full support and participation over the course of the next two years. The time has never been more ripe on Capitol Hill to pass sensible legislation to protect religion, as well as all God-fearing Americans, and that’s exactly why In God We Trust was established.

Your continued support in our national surveys and petition drives is imperative to our success on Capitol Hill. Thank you for all that you’ve done to protect religious freedom.

Bishop Council Nedd (right) meets with Congressman Jeff Duncan (R-SC-3, left) to discuss the importance of passing the Pray In Jesus’ Name Act. Congressman Duncan was a sponsor in the 114th Congress and has indicated that he will again cosponsor in the 115th.

National Chairman Bishop Council Nedd (right) is a fixture on Capitol Hill, meeting with Members of Congress and their staffs to ensure that religious freedom in America will forever be the right of every American citizen.

“I spoke with Congressman Jones’ staff just before the Christmas recess and was told to be ready to move on this issue during the first week of the 115th Congress,” says Nedd. “Congressman Jones is a tireless advocate for religious freedom in America. In God We Trust and our members are proud to support this important piece of legislation.” It will be critical for our members and supporters to stay active as we move into the 115th Congress.

Call your Congressman and demand that he/she immediately cosponsor H.R. 148 when it is reintroduced in January 2017. Congressional Switchboard: 202-224-3121.

Cup of Wrath Award: American Atheist Association

American Atheists, one of the nation’s largest and most controversial secular groups in America, once again attacked Christianity by starting a Christmas 2016 billboard ad campaigns across America. Playing on President Donald Trump’s campaign slogan of “Make America Great Again,” the atheist group has erected billboards that state, “Make Christmas Great Again-Skip Church!”

“It’s sad, really,” states In God We Trust’s National Chairman, Bishop Council Nedd. “I guess after they waged war on public nativity scenes last year, which they lost in an embarrassing way, they decided to go another route this year. It’s nothing different, though, the same hate-fueled speech that keeps them in the spotlight of the media.”
